25 May 2021 Meeting;

President Leonie Smith welcomed Meredith Jaffe (Author and local Co-Ordinator of "StoryFest") as well as Past Member PP Tom Law.

Leonie thanked all those who made the Swap Meeting last Sunday successful, especially John Payne. It was suggested (by John Hozack) that Rotary write to Council on the poor standard of the Showground Kitchen which is in dire need of an upgrade.

An appeal was made for more members to attend the "Shoalhaven Emergency Services Award" night hosted by our Club.

Reported that $8,500.00 had been donated to SES.

Leonie has invited VIPs to the Changeover Dinner on 30th June.

Directors' reports for the Changeover Bulletin required by 11th June at the latest.

Secretary Dale Wilford reported on a request by TAFE to nominate education needs required in the area and brought us up to date with "Operation Cleft" as well as the Science Forum.

Vocational Director Bernie (Bright Shirt) Jones reported on the "Apprentice Of the Year" Presentation to be held in the new Rotary Year.

Youth Report- Avril Pryor: Rotary has received 35 Applications for the Blessing of the Fleet Ball thanks to the efforts of Clare Nyholm, with 15 vacancies left.

Avril attended the District Seminar.

RYLA will be held in Jan 2020. RYPEN in November 2021. We have one female nomination for NYSF. Dream Cricket will be held in October.

The Model United Assembly to be held on 14th and 15th August.

Treasure Report-Ross Wade: the Club has made donations of $25,000.00 with $4,000.00 to still to be distributed. Bush Fire donations and Vouchers to a value of up to $140,000.00 have been distributed to fire victims with Leone to distribute up to $25,000.00 more.

Moneys raised from the Late Dick Crouch's Funeral donations of $700.00 to be distributed probably to the "Blessing of the Fleet" effort, to be confirmed by Phil Brown, Brian Morrison and Wayne Fry.

John Payne acknowledged all the volunteers individually for their assistance in organising the Swap Meeting as well as Angel Fitch and Carol Monte and Rachel Martin.

The Meeting raised $5,100.00 in Entry Fees. The Steak Bar raised $1,300.00.

President Elect Tony Fondacaro reported that the Money Spinner raised $56.00 in 8 weeks and will continue to move around. Tony attended the President Elect Seminar where the message was that Rotary needed "lubricating".

Rob Powell won the Raffle (again)-tickets to Arcadia Cinema.

Guest Speaker Meredith Jaffe. Meredith promoted the upcoming "StoryFest" Event in Ulladulla commencing Friday 18th June, in particular the Opening Ceremony where Markus Zusak will make the inaugural Memorial Address to commemorate the Late Gary Evans and the Closing Lunch on Sunday 20th June at the Altar Bar (tickets sold out) where Richard Fidler will be the Guest speaker.

Meredith also mentioned her newly published fiction novel "The Dressmakers of Yarrandarrah Prison" which is in the top 10 bestselling Independent Publishers list.

Meredith appealed for Rotarians to volunteer to assist hosting at the Event. See details on the Website."

Thank you, John Hozack, for the meeting's report.
