13 July 2021 Meeting;

Congratulations to President Tony Fondacaro and his Board, all the best for the upcoming year.

President Tony welcomed members to the first meeting of the 2021-22 year. President Tony has outlined his vision for 2021-22 as below:

- Bunnings BBQ
- Men's Health
- Support Budawang School & Mullala
- Working bees
- Organising the storage container
- Swap meet
- Driver Education
- Seeking potential members
- Comedy Night

President Tony requested that all members have respect for each other.

President Tony requested assistance for Saturday 17th July to move the Jumping Castle & Stage to Dom Fondacaro's Place on Wilford Lane from Keith Bennett's Place. THANK YOU TO KEITH BENNETT FOR STORING THE JUMPING CASTLE & STAGE OVER THE YEARS.

Upcoming events; BBQ at Bunnings 24/7/21 and Canberra Pipe Band Saturday 4th September at the Dunn Lewis Centre.

Treasurer John Goggins informed members that for his year as Treasurer that instead of weekly reports there would be monthly reports after the report had been tabled at the Board meeting. Invoices for membership would be sent out to members in the next week.

Almoner Bill Harris informed members that PP Keith Bennett is still unwell though getting better. PP Tim Gregory is still at Nowra Private Hospital – at the time of the report though hoping to be home next week.

Community Service Yvonne Young gave the report on Director Ian Tibbles behalf.

Sent around the roster for the upcoming Bunnings BBQ to be held on Saturday 24th July. Roster was filled on the night.

Please contact Yvonne if you wish to be placed on the next roster.

Thank you, Yvonne Young, for the meeting's report.

End of Report
