International Report Director John Payne informed members of the Board's decision to donate $200.00 Jessica Thomas for travel costs as recommended by Chris Manahan from R/C of Moruya.

Jessica has been accepted as a volunteer for a Rotary Foundation Grant Project; WASH, (Water, Sanitation & Hygiene) sponsored by the Rotary Club of Columbia Falls, Rotary Action Group, where for 3 months Jessica will be working with Rotarians in Guatemala delivering "tippy taps" hand wash stations & bio-sand filtration units for homes & schools, amongst general hygiene & water sanitisation behavioural training.

Jessica has undertaken similar project experience in the Andes in the past and has been acknowledged as raising funds for 57 wheelchairs for "wheelchairs for kids".

Jessica is undertaking a Masters in Interia Falls, Montana USA, national & Community Development; she speaks Spanish after a year of study at Uni of Madrid.

Guest Speaker Dr Meike Flore – Meike was born in Fritzlar Germany after gaining her degree at University of NSW, prior to Medical Studies Meike gained a grant for a Rotary Scholarship which saw Meike living in Cape Town South Africa for 12 months. Meike moved to Milton and joined the team at Milton Medical practice and joined the team at Milton Ulladulla Hospital in 2008.

Meike's enjoys general medicine though Meike's passion is Obstetrics and in 2016 opened her own practice in Milton naming it the Milton Family Medical Practice to incorporate Meike's dream of offering services from baby's to aged care, including Skin checks, Allied Health Services including Supporting patients with Parkinson's Disease and their family member, DVA services and looking into providing Cosmetic skin services including skin cancers and skin spots.

The Milton Family Medical Practice has expanded to other building just a few doors down from the original building, renovating the second building in keeping with the heritage style of the Milton Township.

Meike spoke on the change is providing medical service's during COVID, providing vaccination Clinic and a mobile vaccination service for members of the community unable to get to the surgery for vaccination and providing telehealth service so people don't need to attend the surgery just to obtain a script.

Meike has 4 children all girls and a much-loved family dog. Meike in her early days enjoyed running.

The winner of the best fascinator as judged by Dr Flore was Liz Fondacaro.

Thank you, Yvonne Young, for the meeting's report.
