7 June 2022 meeting's report

President Tony Fondacaro welcomed the guests, Genelle Gregory, daughter Mary-Anne Ryan and husband Tony Ryan, Fay Kastelein and Nathaniel Woodcock.

President Tony's report: Club has received two resignations, Murry Coran and Grant Schultz.

Combined Bard meeting took place on Monday 6 June 2022.

Attendance; letters were sent to the members that we haven't seen for a while.

NO MEETING on Tuesday 21 June 2022.

Please help with the BOF Ball, 4 or 5 helpers are needed to setup on Sat 17 June 2022, at the DLC around midday, also on Sunday 18 June 2022, rosters will go out.

President Tony stressed that when volunteers are needed, please do volunteer.

85 rule was explained. But the wrong definition was given!

For the proper definition, please refer to page 2 of the Bulletin of 24 May 2022, click HERE.

Secretary Beck Cameron reported that Peter Hodge has completed 2 sessions of Environmental Studies Action course.

- Driver Education program will go ahead this year in October and November for year 11 students, with the help of Michael Mastronardi.
- The Club might consider buying, with other Clubs in the area, a Driver Simulator for students' training.

Wayne Fry reported, on behalf of treasurer John Goggins, that from July 2021 to May 2022, Bunnings' BBQ has raised $4,500 for our Club, thank you to all the volunteers.

Director Ian Tibbles said that we will have a working bee to paint Mullala.

Ian asked all members to volunteer when we request volunteers, after all we are a Service Club. More service projects are happening and volunteers will be needed; Mullala painting, and why the same members volunteer for the Bunnings' BBQ!

Almoner Ed Zonneveldt, in Bill's absence; Bill Harris says hello and unfortunately tested positive to COVID-19, same with Robin Cantrill.

Clive Cross is back home. Brian Wilkins is not well and has been moved to Sydney.

Genelle Gregory said that Tim's pacemaker is playing up, Tim has received great care in all the hospital he had to visit, as he has had lots of operations over the years.

Tim would love a phone call and visits.

Dale Wilford organised a working bee to spread blue metal at Shirley Coleman's place; John Payne, John Hozack and Dale Wilford volunteered, thank you.

Mary-Anne Ryan said that it has been an honour helping her parents, Tim and Genelle Gregory, with helping the Rotary Christmas Trees, which over the years has raised over $100,000 which has been donated to local charities.

Mary-Anne presented President Tony with a cheque for $6,300 from last year's sale of trees, that money was requested by the Gregorys to be donated to the local Ambulance and Noah's Arc Centre.

Beck Cameron won the raffle.

Fay Kastelein, the guest speaker, talked about the new Reflection Garden at Ulladulla Uniting Church, opposite the Police station.

Fay helped design the garden, originally Fay was a florist in Bowral. After the completion of the Church's extension, then came the fires, floods and COVID, there was a need to a Reflection Garden, which was started in September 2021 and completed in January 2022.

Fay said that we are all invited to have a look and visit the garden.

Fay was introduced by Jo Jones and thanked by Bernard Jones.

End of report by Issa.
