Meeting of 4 July 2023

PP Tony Fondacaro, welcomed all, in the absence of President Bernard Jones.

Secretary Issa Shalhoub; advised that he changed the ownership of the trailer bought from the RC of Bomaderry through Service NSW.

If you know of a guest speaker, please advise Jo Jones.

Treasurer Ed Zonneveldt advised that the yearly fees are now due $360 and the half yearly fee is $180, invoices and receipts will be emailed, the fees can be paid at the meeting.

Ed, as the Club Service director, gave his report. Please pay the 45 Club as soon as you can.

Please attend the Club Assembly, 11 July 2023 and have your say.

Phil Brown spoke on last month's Board meeting's decisions taken, such as; dinner fees increase, $9,000 will be taken from the fire account and to go to general donations account, our club will meet 50 percent of the cost of the new fountain-bubbler at the Milton Public school, Jumping Castle to be handed over to the DLC ...

Community Service Geoff Johns said that John Hozack, Wayne Fry and himself removed the old fountain from the Milton Public school and also removed the plaque that our club installed in 1966. A new plaque will be needed with a mention of the old plaque.

Ian Tibbles and Geoff Johns checked on what is needed at Yurana.

The Jumping Castle trailer will need a good clean, remove any stickers, before it is sold.

Almoner, Bill Harris, announced that Keegan, Wayne Fry's son, is not well, our thoughts are with the family.

Youth Service, Avril Pryor, BOF Ball will take place in March 2024 at the DLC, would like to get the young ladies involved to raise funds.

Craig Saunders, in charge of entertainment, would like to restart our association with Lions, to raise funds, such as a Trivia Night.
THANK YOU, Craig Saunders for looking after the club's entertainment portfolio.

Tim Trescowthick was asked to do a 2 Minuter, in the absence of a guest speaker.

Tim spoke on the changing the face of farming; GPS, introduction of computers and their software, feed amount, financial records, trees planting, good ground cover, weather has changed in the last twenty years due to climate change and Tim said that farming is a challenging profession.

THANK YOU, Tim for your 2 Minuter.

THANK YOU, Craig Cameron for volunteering to look after the Environment portfolio.

THANK YOU, Guy Porter for volunteering to look after the Sergeant at Arms position.
